January 2012

Dear LCWC Members,

I hope that everyone had a wonderful holiday. It was great to see so many people able to make it out to the Christmas party Pacific Bistro. Thank You Linda and JoAnn for putting together such a great night. It was great to see everything that was collected for the Women's Center. Looking forward to a great 2012 and seeing everyone at the general meeting January 17th!

Sincerely,

Tracy M. Enright
LCWC President 2011-2012

Treasurer:

Remember – when purchasing items for the charities we support, many retail stores and restaurants will not charge sales tax if you have the club's EIN. You can obtain a copy from me at our next week. In most cases, the retail store or restaurant only requires you to write down the EIN number. The EIN number for your reference is 39-1250516.

Art Festival:Save the date:

37th Annual Lake Country Art Festival to be held on Saturday, July 14th, 2012 at Nagawaukee County Park in Delafield, WI 9am to 4 pm

We had another Art Festival planning meeting Tuesday, January 3rd with low attendance. At the meeting we discussed the different committees and wanted to give all our members an idea of what areas we need help in.

Corporate Sponsors: This committee will be responsible for contacting local business to solicit corporate sponsors.

Food and Beverage: This committee will coordinate with our food vendor to ensure that everything is set up and ready for the event.

Entertainment: This committee will line up the entertainment for the day of the festival.

Children's Area: This committee will coordinate the children's programs for the day of the festival.

Silent Auction: This committee will coordinate the silent auction, including bid sheets, setting up day of, collecting auction items from artists and getting the items not picked up at the festival to another location for pick up.

Ad Sales/Program: This committee will coordinate the Program and Ad Sales.

Advertising/Publicity: This committee looks into where we should advertize and tries to get us the most exposure possible.

Operations/Volunteers: This committee coordinates the volunteers for the festival and coordinates the garbage, toilets etc. for the event.

Artists: This committee will coordinate the collection of artist for the festival, jurying the artist and getting all artist information prior to the event.

We will be passing around clip boards for everyone to sign up to help participate in the committee they feel would best fit their strengths. Please contact Amiee or Tracy if you have any additional questions about any of the committees.

Education:

The Education Committee is planning to meet to review the scholarship application for simplification and improvement. In January we will schedule weekly meetings to facilitate the process. If you have suggestions that you would like the committee to consider please forward them to Barbara Cancalosi at barbalosi@aol.com

Thank you.

Helping Hands: Lake Country Caring is in need of new (or just like new) towels for the kitchen and bath. They don't need to be fancy, just nice and usable.

The amount of the check was for $500.

Membership:

Everyone should have their directory by now. The last group was mailed out the first week in January. If you did not receive a directory or if you need another one, please let me know. We do have extras available. Also, let me know if any corrections need to be made.

Happy Hour, Lunch Bunch and Coffee Clutch will be starting up in January. We'll have more information at the January meeting. If you have any ideas for any other groups, let me know. There may be other LCWC members with the same interest.

Also, mark your calendars for the upcoming 8th Annual Lake Country Community Fest on Saturday, March 31, at the Kettle Moraine High School from 10 to 3. We will need some volunteers to sit at the booth and tell potential new members how wonderful the Lake Country Women's Club is. We will have a sign-up sheet at the next meeting.

Thanks,

HOLIDAY PARTY APPRECIATED BY MANY

It became quite apparent as our members arrived for our holiday party, that the spirit of giving lives on in all of us. Our goal was to provide a nice Christmas to those spending their holiday at the Women's Center in Waukesha and judging by the tremendous generosity of our members, a smile would be brought to those in need.

Diane Ripple, the representative from the Women's Center, was amazed as we completely filled her car with toys, gifts and baked goods and then presented her with a $500 check. Her short presentation on how the Center impacts so many lives was very inspiring for the season.

The staff at the Pacific Bistro went out of their way to accommodate our group of 38 women; the food and social time was enjoyed by all. The cake balls, made by Mrs. Wonn-derful's Cake Ball Company, were wonderful and the perfect end to a much enjoyed buffet. The door prizes on the table provided by Juli Garton and the beautiful centerpiece provided by Barb Christianson were great raffle items for our members and much appreciated by all -- especially those that won J. Our get together provided a heartwarming way to celebrate the holiday season.
