FEBRUARY NEWSLETTER

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT...

I attended a recent graduation ceremony, the speaker challenged the graduates to consider their dreams, clarify their values, set some goals, figure out what they are good at, aim high, be disciplined, and involve others. This could well be our theme for this year in the Lake Country Women's Club. I believe "support" is the key to achieving our dreams, setting our goals, figuring out what we are good at, being disciplined, and involving others. How fortunate we are to be part of this great club who support one another. I challenge all of us to ensure that "support" is ongoing and evident. At our meetings, sit with someone you don't know and discover what their world is like. Send them a note saying how much you enjoyed getting to know them. Join one of the committee's to see what they all do together. Give your time to participate in planning for events for a sense of pride in helping those in need. Recruit new LCWC members and involve others in their support. Seek out ways to enhance existing friendships and develop professional connections. Great opportunities often disguise themselves in small tasks. Thank you all for what you do for LCWC.
